Chicago's Motor Rows

A Visual Presentation by

Erica Ruggiero of Preservation Chicago

Thursday, December 4, 2014, 6:30 p.m.

Edgewater Branch, Chicago Public Library

6000 N. Broadway, Chicago 60660

Chicago, in the early 20th Century, was a national hub of automobile commerce, home to the country's largest concentration of car and truck dealers along south Michigan Avenue's Motor Row. Smaller hubs flourished in neighborhoods, including Edgewater, which was home to the Northside Motor Row. Join Preservation Chicago's Erica Ruggiero on a photo tour of these, sometimes grand, remnants of automobile commerce – back when cars and trucks were new and everyone was buying.

The event is free and light refreshments will be available.
