Chicago History Book Discussion Group – Chicago Retailing

The Marshall Fields: The Evolution of an American Business Dynasty

By Axel Madsen

Saturday, February 11th, 2017, 10 a.m.

Edgewater Branch, Chicago Public Library

6000 N. Broadway, Chicago 60660

[SEE ANNUAL SCHEDULE BELOW]

The name Marshall Field evokes Chicago memories and a 150 year historic legacy on retailing commercial developments. Copies available at the Edgewater Branch Library reference desk*. Supplemental titles will also be available including: Give the Lady What She Wants, Marshall Field's: the Store That Helped Build America, Remembering Marshall Fields, and other titles.

Coffee and Cookies

[Next Meeting April 15, 2017, 10am: The next topic will be Railroads and Chicago. Future meetings will be June 10, August 12, October 14, and December 9]

*The Edgewater Historical Society and the Chicago Public Library Edgewater Branch sponsor this Chicago History Book Discussion Group, meeting bi-monthly to discuss books on Chicago and local history based on the group's recommendations. The library has a certain number of copies available for circulation in advance of the discussion; EHS also sometimes donates copies to the library; to get yours, visit the Edgewater Branch's reference desk; local residents who have the book are urged to join in. Even if you don't read the book, feel free to join us. The discussion format: those who read from the book list start their comments going around the room; thereafter, those who have not read from the list can then join the discussion. For new books, try Edgewater's Women and Children First bookstore, 5233 N. Clark, 773-769-9299; new and used books of this title are available on Amazon.com or abebooks.com. Used copies, including shipping can often be purchased for under $15.
